Messages:Please read carefully:

Please note that Dr. N. Bouguila has been assigned as your Supervisor. Also note that there will be no financial support from Concordia University for your studies at this time. Any funding from Concordia University for your studies may be determined at a later date based on your possible eligibility for awards/scholarships, your research potential and the availability of funds.

Thesis requirements:

You will be expected to assist your Supervisor in his research, and will be responsible to him for performance of your duties as a graduate student. Your Supervisor will also act as your thesis supervisor. It is expected that you will make a contribution to this research. This contribution may form the basis of the thesis you will submit to the University in partial fulfillment of your degree requirements.

According to University policy, patents and copyrights (with the exception of theses) resulting from work performed during this appointment are assigned to the University. These may, however, be subsequently assigned to others on request.

If you need to defer your admission to a later term, you may submit a written request for deferral to the CIISE department at (graduate@ciise.concordia.ca). Please note there is a $25 fee for every deferral request.

Please contact your Supervisor and your CIISE department advisor, Ms. Silvie Pasquarelli, at (graduate@ciise.concordia.ca) for course registration and program information by the confirmation date indicated above.

Tuition and Fees

Please refer to Student Accounts website for details on the graduate Tuition & Fee and Financial Regulations at <http://tuitionandfees.concordia.ca/>. The University reserves the right to modify the published scale of tuition and other fees without prior notice, at any time before the beginning of an academic term.

Governmental Requirements:

All students are required to have a Permanent Code. To start the process for obtaining one, log on to your Self Service page, and click on the 'Code Permanent Data Form' in the Personal Information section. Please complete the on-line form and submit the required supporting document, if applicable. International students must submit the required supporting documentation only after they have received a study permit. For more information concerning the required documentation, please visit <http://www.concordia.ca/admissions/tuition-fees/permanent-code.html>.

Please consult the Graduate Student Handbook to familiarize yourself with the steps a new graduate student needs to follow from acceptance to graduation. We also invite you to learn more about GradProSKILLS, a suite of skills development workshops designed to enrich the graduate experience and transition into a future career. Visit <http://concordia.ca/gradproskills> for more information.

Sincerely,
